

Q: Mr. Burrier can you briefly describe each of these farms.

Lets start with Ted Burrier.

A: The location of them?

Q: No just describe them, are they working dairy farms?

A: No, neither one of them is a dairy farm.

Q: What are they?

A: They got beef cattle on them

Q: Both farms

A: On one of them, the one where Ted Burrier lived

Q: That's the Ted Burrier farm

A: Right

Q: What about the Runkles farm, what is that used for?

A: That's a crop farm there

Q: At the present time would you agree that this is the status of the title: Emerson Edward Burrier and Edith G.

Burrier and Adeline Burrier, Joint Tenants as to 2/3

interest, Tenants in Common as to the whole; Catherine

Suzette Burrier Englar, Tenant in Common as to 1/6th interest; Florence L. Burrier, Tenant in Common as to 1/18th interest; Emerson L. Burrier, Allan Z. Burrier,

Roger D. Burrier, Barbara C. Burrier, Connie Elaine

Catron, Joseph Henry Burrier, Ricky Lee Burrier,

Kenneth Eugene Burrier and Edwin Dean Burrier, Joint

Tenants as to 2/18th interest, Tenants in Common as to the whole.

A: Yes sir

Q: Mr. Burrier in your opinion is there any way that either the Ted Burrier farm or the Runkles farm can be divided in kind so as to give each party their respective interests
